ST. JULIAN'S SCHOOL FOUNDED IN 1932

St. Julian's School is seeking a passionate and dedicated teacher of English for our primary bilingual curriculum, full-time or part-time, for an immediate start.

If you thrive on fostering a love for reading, creative writing, and confident speaking in young learners, we would like to hear from you.

Key Responsibilities:

- Deliver engaging, interactive English language and literacy lessons tailored to primary students.
- Create a supportive classroom environment that encourages curiosity and confidence.
- Assess student progress and collaborate with parents and faculty to support individual growth.

What We Offer:

- Flexible working schedule (Full-Time or Part-Time options available)
- Supportive and dynamic school community
- Opportunities for professional development
- Competitive compensation package

Please send a letter of application and CV to: people@stjulians.com